

Senior Software Engineer Job Description

HedgeFacts, LLP is seeking a motivated skilled software engineer to work in a small team environment to participate in all phases the software development lifecycle of various products developed under the HedgeFacts brand. The ideal candidate will be experienced in Microsoft.Net, SQL Server and other development tools and technologies used by the company.

In addition, the Senior Software Engineer is expected to have necessary domain expertise in the area of financial markets to have reasonable input into software design, liaison with service staff and management on the status of various development projects and ongoing software maintenance, and participate in the implementation of HedgeFacts software with clients. The Senior Software Engineer should be able to manage a team of developers as business demands and requirements grow.

Critical Job Elements:

- ✓ Demonstrate superior skill using Microsoft.Net and other technologies used in development
- ✓ Work with the system architect and other developers to find solutions and implement the required functionality
- ✓ Plan and manage software releases
- ✓ Analyze functional requirements and technical feasibility and develop the functionality
- ✓ Define and implement enhancements
- ✓ Demonstrate knowledge in the area of financial markets, specifically operations of hedge funds and managed account businesses
- ✓ Provide task details and estimates to project managers for project scheduling
- ✓ Participate in technical integration design and implementation discussions
- ✓ Assist the production support team by researching, debugging and resolving critical production issues
- ✓ Troubleshoot and maintain applications.

This is an excellent opportunity for professional growth and technical creativity in a casual work atmosphere. Our company is dedicated to the newest technologies in a low employee turnover organization.

The qualified candidate must be able to work and communicate with colleagues, management, and customers.

Medical and dental benefits start on the 1st day of employment and include employer contribution to premiums. 401K and disability benefits are offered as well.